If:

1. you are subject to the social insurance of farmers,
2. and your employment relationship was terminated for reasons on your employment establishment's part,
3. and you are not eligible to receive an unemployment benefit,

you are entitled to:

1. receive the funds for the contributions to the social insurance of farmers for the initial four quarters after your employment or service relationship was terminated;
2. receive a scholarship for the training term;
3. receive a compensation under the accident insurance connected with the training, in line with the rules stipulated for the unemployed.

You will be eligible to receive the benefits if:

- you worked for 18 months preceding the day when you filed your application and you received at least a minimum remuneration for work on those grounds, with contributions for the social insurance and the Labour Fund paid based on that for 365 days, and you were made redundant for reasons on the work establishment's part and if
- the tax on the agricultural undertaking or special branch does not exceed the agricultural tax on 5 comparative fiscal hectares or, per one household member without permanent non-agricultural source of income, does not exceed the agricultural tax on 1 comparative fiscal hectare.

What is more, the City President or starost can also:

1. fund the training costs to commence employment or non-agricultural activity outside the agricultural undertaking;
2. grant one-off funds for starting non-agricultural activity or for buying land, not excluding production or service activity connected with agriculture.
